

Country:

Spain

Appellation:

Rioja DOC

Varieties:

Tempranillo, Garnacha

Vineyards:

Vineyards in Abalos (Tempranillo) and Tudelilla (Garnacha), covering Rioja Alavesa and Rioja Baja.

Winemaking:

Grapes are vinified separately, even though the distance between the 2 areas, they ripe at the same time due to same altitude.

Malolactic fermentation in French oak in contact with lees.

Aged for 15 months

94 Points

Tasting notes:

Red ruby colour with an open nose with dark fruit, liquorice, fresh red fruits, mountain herbs.

In the mouth is medium-bodied with balanced acidity.

A fine well balanced harmonious wine.

Pairing:

A high versatile wine that combines with different dishes.

Perfect paired with highly spiced and seasoned meats in oriental style (Thai for example).

It goes splendidly with T-bone and chops