

Country:

Spain

Appellation:

Campo de Borja DO

Varieties:

Tempranillo, Garnacha

Vineyards:

These vigorous and robust vineyards, some more than 100 years old, are firmly established on unparalleled land that, combined with the harsh climate, give our grapes their distinctive quality and personality.

Winemaking:

After the malolactic fermentation we proceed to the pass in oak for a minimum period of 9 months in American oak, fulfilling its ageing in bottle.

Tasting notes:

Colour.- Red ruby colour with maroon tones, clean and brilliant.

Aroma.- Medium intensity, complex aromas where the toasted and dry fruits intermingle with the jammy fruits.

Palate.- So attack, wide, harmonic with the tannin of the oak, well assembled with a wide aftertaste..

Pairing:

Perfect with spicy food, high spiced food like Indian or Vietnamese.

Great with duck, pork and sweet and sour dishes.
