FROM PASTOR BECKY ERB STRANG

I encourage you to read Luke 4:14-30: Jesus reading from scroll of the prophet Isaiah during worship in his hometown of Nazareth. At first, his hometown friends and neighbors seemed delighted by his witness among them. But their delight quickly turned to rage when Jesus went on to tell those nearest and dearest to him that God's grace is for everyone—not a select few.

Grace has a way of knocking us off our feet and causing us to take stock—for there is nothing we can do to earn God's grace, it is a gift freely given out of God's radical love and welcome for all of his children. As humans, we tend to want to draw boundaries around grace: deciding who is in and who is outside of God's embrace.

Luke 4 reminds us that we are not the ones to draw the lines. Instead, we are called to be instruments of God's grace for others rather than setting limits on who may receive that grace.

St. Paul UCC is a place of radical grace and welcome. We work hard as this particular gathered Body of Christ to reach out to the poor, the hurting, the hungry, the oppressed. We feed people at monthly Open Table Community meals. We offer gas and food cards for those in need. We have a fully stocked Blessing Pantry for those who cannot afford toiletries, cleaning supplies and food.

When I first arrived here over ten years ago, I was told that there are no poor people in New Bremen. But, when we as a congregation began to REALLY look around, we realized that there are plenty of people—our own neighbors—who are in need. And, because we love Jesus, we have sought to bring good news to the poor and hurting.

On February 9, St. Paul's Discipleship Team is hosting a Community Health and Resource Fair in the education building from 11:30am to 2:00pm. We will have a variety of health-related folk offering resources including a speaker about pain management, a dental staff, chiropractor, massage therapist, Reiki, along with free haircuts. A hearty meal will be served in the Assembly Room. We will also distribute new shoes, boots, and socks to all children—free of charge.

For the Discipleship Team, the Health and Resource Fair is another opportunity for us to reach out to our neighbors—welcoming them in, feeding their bodies and their souls.

My deepest prayer for our congregation is that we will continue to be people of radical welcome and hope. That we will not turn people away because of how they live or who they love. That we will bring good news to others who are often rejected by their closest family and friends. We have the opportunity to be the face of Jesus to those who often face condemnation and scorn. We have the opportunity to embody Christ's grace.

Quaker theologian Parker Palmer has this to say about how we are to live as Christians, as followers of Jesus: The mission of the church is not to enlarge its membership, not to bring outsiders to accept its terms, but simply to love the world in every possible way—to love the world as God did and does...If we are able to love the world, that will be the best demonstration of the truth which the church has been given.

Friends, let us be people of radical welcome and grace: for Jesus' sake.

Peace,
Becky

PASTOR DEE'S REPORT

Sunday school classes have transitioned to stories of Jesus, in the New Testament, as we begin the New Year. We celebrated Epiphany (the coming of the Wise Men) January 5, with lessons and a scavenger hunt. Students were led to the Assembly Room where we gathered to talk about the abundance of items collected for their "Blessing Pantry Battle", and what a blessing it is to bring "gifts" for Jesus and for others. In addition to what the students donated, Emily Willrath applied for, and was granted, a donation from Thrivent. Thrivent is an insurance company her workplace is affiliated with. Not only did they make a monetary donation, which enabled Emily to buy a large amount of items for the Blessing Pantry, they also donated t-shirts for all our students and teachers that encourage us to "Live Generously!"

Our Splash Youth have begun the New Year with a four week study of new beginnings starting with the story of Saul and his conversion to becoming the Apostle Paul. We are learning that EVERYONE can have a new beginning.

There are many ways God can help us to begin again: in how we treat others, our own conduct and behaviors, and our perspective on life and how we live.

The Jr. and Sr. High have resumed their studies of the symbols in our sanctuary which has led us to our lessons about Jesus' closest disciples. Please feel free to ask them to share what they are learning.

I received an e-mail Wednesday, January 8 about an overnight outing set for Saturday & Sunday, February 22-23 at the United Church of Christ Congregational in Vermillion. The Vermillion UCC Congregational is looking for youth to help raise money for the Denison Avenue UCC in Toledo to continue to host their homeless shelter. I have presented the 6-12 grade youth with the information and sent home a letter containing all pertinent information about the homeless shelter situation and the overnight outing. I am hoping to get some responses at youth group this Wednesday night!

I will resume Lay School in Tiffin, February 4. Rev. Dr. Diane Carter will teach "Exploring the Old Testament II" classes.
