Roger Bushell was born to professional choral directors and began piano study at age 8. In 1942, he joined the U.S. Navy School of Music. He served on the USS Washington Battleship as a member of the 21-piece military band. Bushell graduated from the University of Southern California, majoring in piano accompanying. He eventually settled in Las Vegas, where he began teaching piano at the University of Nevada Las Vegas. Bushell helped organize the Las Vegas MTA and became its second president. His students earned many local and state awards. Bushell passed away in the Fall 2017
