A blue-tinted photograph of a business team in a meeting room. The team consists of about 15 people, some sitting around a long table and others standing. They are silhouetted against a large window with vertical blinds. The word "TEAM" is written in large, white, bold, sans-serif capital letters with a black outline, centered at the bottom of the image. The floor is highly reflective, showing the silhouettes of the people and the text.

TEAM

The background of the image shows a group of eleven people silhouetted against a bright window. They are seated around a long table, appearing to be in a meeting or collaborative work session. The window has vertical blinds, and the light from the window creates a strong backlighting effect on the individuals. The overall color palette is a cool blue, with the light from the window providing a focal point of brightness.

SCENARIO 1: IF YOU HAVE ONE WEBSITE, YOU ONLY NEED ONE GOOGLE ANALYTICS ACCOUNT WITH ONE WEBSITE PROPERTY.

SCENARIO 2: If you have two websites, such as one for your business and one for your personal use, you might want to create two accounts, naming one "123Business" and one "Personal".

Then you will set up your business
website under the 123Business

A light blue line graph with circular markers is overlaid on the scene, showing an overall upward trend. The text is overlaid on a semi-transparent blue rectangular area at the bottom.

SCENARIO 3: If you have several businesses, but less than 50, and each of them has one website, you might want to put them all under a Business account.

Then have a Personal account for your personal websites.

- SCENARIO 4: If you have several businesses and each of them has dozens of websites, for a total of more than 50 websites, you might want to put each business under its own account, such as 123Business account, 124Business account, and so on.

YOU NEED TO SET GOALS ON YOUR GOOGLE ANALYTICS DASHBOARD.

Users	Sessions	Bounce Rate	Session Duration

Below the table is a horizontal timeline for February 04 to 10. At the bottom right, there is a dropdown menu for 'Last 7 days' and a link for 'AUDIENCE OVERVIEW'.

Once you do, you'll be sent to another window where you'll be able to find the Goals button.

The screenshot displays the Google Analytics Admin interface, organized into three main columns: Account, Property, and View. The 'View' column on the right contains a list of settings, with the 'Goals' option highlighted by a blue rectangular box. A blue arrow points from the text 'Click here' to this 'Goals' button. The interface also includes navigation tabs for 'ADMIN' and 'USER' at the top, and a footer with copyright information and links to 'Analytics Home', 'Terms of Service', 'Privacy Policy', and 'Send Feedback'.
