YOUR TRAINER

In 2006 as a direct response to increased gun crime and drive-by shootings on her road (including the fatal shooting of a 7 year-old), Maria set-up a charity dedicated to helping people resolve conflict without the use of violence. From humble beginnings mediating rival gangs around her kitchen table, within a year Maria was awarded half a million pounds by the UK government to develop a model of mediation for violent crime and anti-social behaviour.

As a result of her work with gang members and violent offenders in London's most deprived areas, Maria developed the Dialogue Road Map – a communications tool designed to break down barriers and get engagement even when the other person is resistant, hostile, angry, violent or resentful.

Maria now delivers DRM training to frontline staff throughout the world. She is described by the Civil Mediation Council as one of the UK's top mediators; is the former Chair of Mediation UK, has a Master's Degree in Mediation and Conflict Resolution, and is a sought-after speaker and trainer.
